Grants Week 2017

9-13 October

Finding and applying for funding is the perfect way to boost your research career and experience international educational opportunities. Throughout the Grants Week you will be introduced to national and international funding schemes, and acquire insider-tips for a successful grant application. The interactive programme includes workshops, presentations and networking opportunities, and is meant for researchers, research and education managers, and funding professionals, in all career stages. Renowned experts in national and international funding will be present to tell you everything you need to know about grant applications for research, education and training.
